QUARTERBACK

The Leland Corporation presents QUARTERBACK™ the most exciting football game ever. This is football the way it was meant to be, with all the action and all the strategy.

Players call their own plays and the spring-loaded joystick gives them complete control of the passing and the kicking game. The exclusive individual stat storage feature keeps players coming back for new and even more challenging games. This is real football with game play that could only come from the people at the Leland Corporation.

QUARTERBACK™ features:

- One or two player head to head action
- A dedicated cabinet that houses a big 25" high resolution monitor
- Realistic sound and graphics
- A spring-loaded joystick for precise passing and kicking control
- A selection screen that allows players to call their own plays on offense and on defense
- The exclusive individual stat storage features that records players statistics, win-lose records, and difficulty levels
